

Whyte Avenue Survey

The lines of the main block of the city are said to be out and buildings that have stood on the leading thoroughfare for years, are said to be encroaching on alien property. The McIntyre block at the corner of Main Street and Whyte Avenue, is found by Building Inspector Davies survey to be a foot on Main Street, while A.G. Baal's store is said to encroach on the McIntyre block to a distance of 10 inches. It may be that the base of the survey is out of true, and in any event the McIntyre block has held undisputed possession of its present site so long that it is entitled to remain, according to the statute of Limitations.

Building Permits

The building inspector has issued the following permits within the last two days:

London Old Boys Organize.

If a large delegation of London old boys from Edmonton do not travel to the annual gathering in the old Ontario town in the summer of 1908, it will not be for lack of enthusiasm in the local branch of the London Old Boys' Association, a very lively meeting of which was held in the Liberal Club rooms last evening, when Mr. Nicholas Wilson, of London, was elected honorary president. The other officers elected were as follows:

President E. C. Emery, vice president, T. M. Turnbull, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce; second vice-president, Dr. H.P. Whitaker; treasurer, E. A. Brown, of the Alberta Canadian Assurance Company. Committee, Messrs. F. G. Wright, J. A. Scott, and Ald. J. B. Walker.

It was decided unanimously by the meeting to admit the London old boys of Strathcona into the Edmonton Association, and it was also decided to admit Middlesex old boys if the laws of the international Association allowed. There are about seventy-five London old boys in the city.

The London Old Boys Association is the original and largest association of its kind in the world, the Chicago branch alone having 5,000 members. There are now about 150 branches in Canada and the United States and Edmonton is the latest to join this great organization. The object of the association is to help London boys who are away from home and also to give them an opportunity of going back to the old town at least once in every three years to a reunion and grand celebration, at which the old boys meet their friends and relatives. The next reunion is in August 1908.

The secretary, A. E. Brown, of the Alberta Canadian Assurance Company, will in the near future call an executive meeting to arrange for the next general meeting.—Journal.

By-Laws Were Voted On.

City Hospital, City Hall Site Passed With Large Majorities; Bailey Soap Works Turned Down.

Yesterday the ratemakers of the city voted on four money bills, involving over a hundred thousand dollars. As was expected, those relating to the City Hospital, 545 Hall site and Market site received the hearty approval of the voters, but an adverse majority was registered in the case of the Bailey soap works proposition, the result also not being unexpected.

The poll was much heavier than on previous occasions of this kind. It is interesting to note that at least as many votes were recorded as were polled in Edmonton on Monday when seven money bills were submitted to the ratemakers of the Capital.

The bylaws and raters were as follows:

No. 187.—To provide for raising $70,000 to purchase block numbered 172 and erect thereon a city hospital. Votes for ..... 249 Against ..... 2-9 Rejected ..... 3 Majority for ..... 280

No. 188.—to provide for raising $10,000 to purchase a site for city hall. Votes for ..... 260 Against ..... 27 Rejected ..... 8 Majority for ..... 283

Market Garden Subdivision

The Corner Best Estate Hub will move into new quarters on Monday from the old Rutherford block into the new foot lately occupied by Don Thompson as a drug store, which has been fitted up since the recent fire. In order to give the new office a coming and off they will place on the market the south east quarter of 10-52-21 as a market garden subdivision to be sold in five acre blocks with no restriction as to the number any purchaser may secure.

Every foot of the quarter section is high and dry and exceptionally well adapted for fruit gardening, dairy or poultry raising purposes. The price will be $50 per acre, one third down and the balance in one and two years at 7 per cent interest.

Killarney Murderer's Confession.

Killarney, Man., May 29.—Lawrence Gowland, the self confessed murderer of Georgia Brown, recanted his preliminary hearing before Magistrate Shannon here today. Owing to the weak condition of the prisoner the trial was held in a room in the hospital. Only the witnesses and the press reporters were admitted to the room. John Brown, brother of the murdered girl, was the first witness, and testified that the prisoner made a confession to him on Thursday night, admitting his guilt. Constable McFarland also swore that he was present at the time of the confession, and that it was reproduced in writing in his presence and signed by the prisoner. This document was produced and read, it was as follows:

"Last Wednesday I was plotting for cattle, about noon I came into dinner, had dinner and went out and sat on the veranda. Georgina came out and called me an English brat. Jack was going to town. When Jack had been gone about ten minutes I went up stairs. It was about ten minutes after one, I had my boots and stockings off. I took my razor with me. Georgina's standing at the south window on the floor. I went in and took hold of her, and started wrestling with her. She got down and took razor from me. I got razor back and cut her throat with it. While she was wrestling with me, the razor broke, and I lost it, and could not find it. I wanted then to find a razor to cut my own throat, but could not find one. I went down stairs to find Jack's razor, but could not find it. I got butcher knife, took it up stairs and laid down on the bed. I then went down stairs into kitchen and made a cigarette; then went into my own room and commenced sitting on the bed, and then went and lay down on my own bed and finished cutting my own throat with the knife on the floor next the wall. I could see Jack coming when I cut my own throat. He was about a mile away coming home. I was sorry after I cut Georgina's throat, and thought I would cut my own. I ravished Georgina once after she was dead."

"At conclusion of reading of this confession, Gowland was committed to stand trial.

Wellman Hopes To Reach Pole

New York, May 27.—A despatch from London says: Walter Wellman left here yesterday for Norway in connection with the project to reach the north pole in the ship America. All the members of the party will assemble at Spitzbergen June 5, or 6 and the start for the pole will probably be made between July 20 and August 10.

"Our first endeavor," said Mr. Wellman, "will be to teach the north pole. Once there we shall return by whatever route is most favorable. You must not think we are over-confident of being successful. Far from it. I know so much about the nature of our expedition that I am almost half afraid of it." Mr. Wellman's two daughters will reach Spitzbergen at the end of July in a tourist steamer. They will possibly be there too late to see their father off.

C.P.R. Officials Here.

R.R. Jamieson, superintendent of the C.P.R., arrived in the city from Calgary on the late train and is still in the city. He is superintending the commencement of the extensive operations of the road here.

Contractor McDermott also arrived in the city last night and in company with Inspector of Bridges and Buildings McKenney and road superintendent Headlam left this morning for Hardisty to look over the gravel beds there. It is the intention of the contractor to bring the gravel for the concrete to be used in the various buildings for the company from that point in preference to getting it out of the river bed here, if the quality is good. Mr. McKenney and the contractor will examine it as to quality and Mr. Headlam will look into the matters affecting the gravel.

The works of the company under contract will amount to over $150,000 and probably to $200,000, apportioned as the season is somewhat backward, it is intended to make up for the delay in getting started by paying an extra amount of vigor and energy into the work when engaged. Already the old freight shed is in course of removal and the siding is being repaired for the conveyance of material, so that by the middle of next week the East end will be a veritable hive of building industry.

Among the appropriations made for this point are:

Station $80,000 with probabilities of future enlargement.

Round house and machine shop, $31,000.

Coal sheds, centre pit and depressed track, $25,000.

Water tank, $5,000.

Turn Table, $7,000.

The prisoner was brought from Winnipeg and will be brought back today to await trial. He still pleads not guilty, and does not appear to complicate, and does not appear to complicate.

Beresford Claim Settled.

(Special to The Chronicle.)

El Paso, Texas, May 30.—The negro who was the Common Law wife of Lord Charles Beresford's brother, a wealthy rancher of Alberta and Texas, has decided to accept $15,000 in settlement of all her claims against the estate of the deceased estate. Beresford was killed in a railway accident on the Soo line last winter. The exposure of his relations with the negro was made at a death scene created a great sensation owing to his aristocratic and influential connections in Britain. Rear-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford and another brother are legatees of the vast estate left by the Alberta rancher, which is estimated to amount to half a million dollars.

Coal Commission At Work.

Lethbridge, May 29.—Coal commission heard the evidence of the miners employed in the Galt mines here today. The men expressed their views very freely. All the questioning was done by the commissioners, and the witnesses were allowed to offer all the suggestions they desired.—Hon. W. H. Cushing was present during the day, and followed the evidence very closely.

The first witness at the morning session was John McTaggart, an employee of the Galt mines for twelve years. He seemed to be generally satisfied with the conditions in the mines, though he declared the ventilation was not as good as it ought to be in the rooms. During the past four years there had not been any serious accidents in the mine. He was paid 90 cents an hour and worked ten hours a day. Berle worked at ten hours a day and his wages averaged from $40 to $50 a month. S.A.R. Crabbe, a second boss gave the most important evidence. His wages, he said, ran from $72 to $74 a month. He has had twenty years experience as a miner and had worked in England, India and Africa. During the past six years he has been in the Galt mines. He has not had a fatal accident in the mine. Any accidents that did occur were usually caused by the fact that many men in the mine were new to the business. Powder smoke was one of the worst things to be attended with by the workmen.

The system of paying wages at the Galt mine was complained about. Two weeks wages being held back, and a new employee having to work a full month before he was paid a cent of wages. Mr. Crabbe contended that the men should be paid for the coal they turned out before it was sent to the surface. He also said that timbering should be paid for separately. On the question of hours of work, Mr. Crabbe recommended that the men should work six hours a day. He said that the men working underground suffered a mental and physical disadvantage which a laborer on the surface did not entail. In Durham and Northumberland, in England, contract miners only worked six hours a day. In nearly all the other mines in England an eight hour system had been introduced. He also instanced the eight hour day enacted by the government in British Columbia. As to the compensation law, Mr. Crabbe said he believed a law similar to that in Great Britain would be practicable and acceptable in Alberta. After two years of operation in Great Britain the law had resulted in reducing fatal accidents from 44 thousand to 12-8 per thousand. This was due to the strictness of the provisions for safety in the mines. The operators were also made to observe strict discipline. Mr. Crabbe mentioned that in the Galt mines safety lamps were not used.

The company is said to be fully convinced that the government is in earnest in taking the fullest possible control of the telephone system in Manitoba. The Manitoba government is said to be nothing short of the company handing over the present system in Winnipeg to the government, also the Bell system in the larger towns of the province. The company will retain the long distance system under a working arrangement with the government. The telephone minister, Hon. J.H. Howden is not in the city consequently the above report cannot be confirmed. An important announcement is expected in a few days.

cluded but neither goal was in danger. After ten minutes of fast work Strathcona scored, Sheppard making a perfect pass to Jodge, who did the scoring. The Saints equalized within one minute, taking the ball from
For the remainder of the half the city boys had all the play and kept the St. Paul's back busy. Several times they got within shooting distance, but over-anxiety usually spoiled the shot.

The second half opened with Edmonton on the defensive, but try as they would Strathcona could not get through. Two corners fell in rapid succession but their backs cleared well and usually were masters of situation. The Edmonton forwards broke away several times and on one occasion found the goal, but it was declared off side. Strathcona scored the winning counter about five minutes from time, Jodge again doing the trick on a pass from Sheppard.
For the remainder of the half try as they could, Edmonton could not score.

GOAL KICKS

The new set of goal nets purchased by the locals were used for the first time and were greatly appreciated.
They did away with any disputes regarding goals.

Aghel Bisset, the dashing outside right, is again in the city will hold down that position in future, mathematically strengthening the team.

The attendance at football games in Strathcona is most disappointing.
The locals have one of the best teams in Northern Alberta, as last night's game proved, and it is to be hoped that when they again play a record breaking crowd will be in attendance. Nothing encourages a

Calgary, May 20.—The home team won the final game of the series here tonight, the score at the close being 8-0.
The feature of the game was the heavy hitting of both teams. McLaughlin was knocked out of the box and replaced by McGucken. The visitors fielded rather loosely, and this, together with poor battery work, caused their defeat.

Wetaskiwin 4 Strathcona 2

Last evening the Strathcona lance ball team played an exhibition game at Wetaskiwin, losing by a score of 4
-2. But for the fourth inning when a couple of bad errors allowed in four runs, the locals had all the best of the game. O'Keefe was in the box for Wetaskiwin, but was battled all over the field, and was forced to retire, Pittman taking his place. He was also hit hard but he managed to keep them scattered. McLaughlin pitched the entire game for Strathcona, and with a little better support would have won out. Only two safe hits were made off his delivery while he fanned seven of the fifteen men that faced him. It is expected that the return game will be played here within the next week.

Around the City.

Wm. Kent, who has been laid up for a few days is out again.

* For best meals and most reasonable rates in the city try the Iroquois.

No bath on Sunday, and no soap on Wednesday. What can a poor boy do?

A Hamiltonian said the other night stole the wire heavily charged, with electricity of the poles. Shocking!

D. F. Coyle, private secretary to President Mackenzie, of the C.N.R. and Mrs. Coyle were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Malou on Saturday last.

* Largest dining room in the city at the Iroquois.

William Deitz has been given a contract to build two houses on Niblock Street for Mr. Swaboda to cost $2,500 each.

Those lawn turn over collars at Malou's are very pretty, fancy embroidered, white, and will be sold as a Friday bargain at 3 for 25c.

The local lodge of the S.O.E.R.S. hold a smoking concert at 8 o'clock this evening in the Oddfellows' Hall. A cordial invitation to be present is extended to all Englishmen.

* The Iroquois—the square meal house of the square deal city.

Rev. James Mason, of St. Stephens Church, Colchester, on Wednesday afternoon ceremonized the marriage of David B. Moorehouse, of Cooking Lake, and Miss Ellen Shaw, of Hillsdale.

The one man who cast four ballots against the hospital bylaw ought to stay in Edmonton and the one who cast the other two ought to go to the coast to live and stay there.

Two black rabbits that were on a box on a wagon drawn by a runaway team of bronchos yesterday afternoon, couldn't keep up to the pace, got scared and jumped off. Guess they were going home.

Jas. Kennedy, of Edmonton, and Miss Margaret Mead, of the same place were married on Monday evening by Rev. W.R. George, in Holy Trinity church.

City Engineer McLean has been asked by H.R. Jamieson, of the C.P.R. to confer with him in the measurement of the street which the road will cross on the line to the high level bridge.

* Have you tried a meal at the Iroquois yet?

As between the hired ball tossers of Edmonton, and the hired ball tossers of Calgary, Strathcona people are about to look upon the game with feelings of cold neutrality.

The Bailey Company didn't add soap the ratepayers to any great extent, in fact it got soaked in its own suds, so to speak.

Wonder if the two ratepayers who voted against the hospital bylaw were among those who rolled up 37 in favor of the soap company. The compensations of life are shown by the fact that a dozen men will chase a little mouse with brooms and clubs and a little mouse will chase a dozen women with nothing at all.

Plumbing inspector Davies, since assuming the duties of his office has received 20 applications for plumbing connections, and has made 10 water tests.

A private tennis club has been formed with the following executive:

President, G.W. Marriott.

Secretary, A. Pierson.

Committee, G. W. Marriott, C. T. Ward, J. M. Kinser.

This club is strictly limited to 20 members and the subscription price is $10.00. They expect to commence play about June 15th.

Messrs. Daly & Sullivan have just completed three miles of fencing around the west half of section 10, 62, 34, three miles south east of the city.

The section has a splendid growth of hay and the owners expect to cut upwards of 200 tons of hay on their holding this season.

* Best table in Alberta at the Iroquois.

A team belonging to the Strathcona Cartage company took fright yesterday evening and ran away on West Railway street. The driver, Oscar Olson, was loading furniture at the time and the horses were tied with a heavy weight. The bridle of the horse was "fled" broke and the team started off at a mad gallop. The wagon broke in Whyte Avenue and dropped to the ground stopping the horses. Little damage was done.

CUT WORMS IN THE FIELDS AND GARDENS.

Bearing in mind the enormous damage that was done by cutworms last spring, it will pay the farmer and garden owner to give a look to their crops as early as possible after they are sown and at any rate just as soon as the small plants begin to appear. The parent moths or millers were not very numerous last year, but so that probably the cut worms will not be nearly so plentiful this spring as they were last, but from reports and from what has already been seen in the fields and gardens there is still risk of a good deal of damage from the depredations of these creatures this year.

These pests are very easily destroyed and the remedy consists in applying a mixture of bran and paris green to the surface of the ground in which the cutworms are harbored. The cutworms came out to the surface to feed at night and bran seems to be in great favor with them as food, and when there is a judicious mixture of paris green along with it they are usually quite satisfied with one meal. The mixture should be in the proportion of one pound of Paris green to 50 pounds of bran, although some authorities prescribe double the quantity of bran to the same amount of Paris green. The bran should be mixed with sweetened water till it is crumbly, not sloppy, and the Paris green dusted on it and thoroughly mixed. It may be applied with a piece of single or even the bare hand if only a small quantity is to be used. Many farmers found this treatment very effective last year and indeed it is now recognized as the standard remedy all over the country wherever the cutworms become a pest. To prevent disappointment in the cabbage patch every plant should be protected by a screen of paper twisted on the stalk just above the roots and loosely enfolding the leaves. This forms an effective barrier to the cut worm, is easily applied, and does not interfere with the growth of the cabbage.
